Year 8-Independent Study

What's your passion...

WALT: To improve your independent study skills ready for GCSE revision.

WILF: To complete a range of homework tasks that are created by you, not your teachers! It could be researching and writing about a topic school, using revision websites such as BBC Bite size or studying a newspaper article.

Instructions:

- First chose which challenge you will do: The Sprowston Challenge: to complete 6 pieces of Independent study work or The Mr Bidle's Challenge: to complete 10 pieces of independent study.
- Complete the work outside of school, ensuring that:
 - you have evidence of the work you have done.
 - each piece of work takes at least 20 to 30 minutes.
 - it is work that has not been set by a teacher as homework, but is relevant to one of your subjects
- You can do a maximum of one piece of Independent study per day.
- Use the back of this card to record what you have done, and ask your parents to check your work and sign it off.
- Once your card is complete ask your form tutor to sign and hand it to Mr Bidle.

Deadline: Friday 24th June

(Prizes will be awarded)
